ETHICAL PRACTICES BOARD ISSUES SUMMARY OF
1992 CAMPAIGN FINANCE REPORTS FOR STATE
CANDIDATES, POLITICAL COMMITTEES, AND POLITICAL FUNDS

Candidates for state legislative offices spent a record $9,154,943 to seek election in 1992 from total available resources of $11,273,018, according to a summary of campaign finance reports compiled by the Ethical Practices Board.

Contributions from individuals, political committees, political funds, and political parties totaling $6,521,344 were received by 457 candidates for state legislative offices in the 1992 elections. Included in the total contributions received were 7,506 separate donations of more than $100 each totaling $2,865,582 (44% of total contributions received.)

The summary is based upon reports for 1992, the first election after the 1992 legislative reapportionment, as filed with the Board by principal campaign committees of candidates for state senator and state representative. The summary includes Reports filed by candidates for elective judicial offices in 1992 and data from reports filed by candidates in a Special Election in District 44B in 1993.

Additionally the report summarizes data supplied by constitutional office holders (governor-lieutenant governor, attorney general, state treasurer, state auditor, secretary of state); 353 political party committees; 435 political committees and political funds who contribute to state candidates; and by committees of candidates who did not file for election in 1992.

campaign committee, political committee, or political fund with similar data from 1990 and 1988 election years is included in the report.

1992 General Election - Candidates

The campaign spending limit applicable in 1992, based on the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index 1989-1991, was $43,150 for state senator candidates and $21,576 for state representative candidates. Information about public subsidy distributed in 1992 included in the report discloses that 441 (97%) of the 457 candidates filing for office agreed to abide by spending limits and other conditions in order to receive money from the State Elections Campaign Fund. A total of $2,603,210 in public subsidy was distributed in 1992. In 1990 439 (96%) candidates signed public subsidy agreements (total distributed: $4,400,412 to candidates including candidates for constitutional offices;) in 1988 242 (89%) candidates signed public subsidy agreements (total distributed: $1,110,270 to house candidates, the only office elected in 1988 eligible for public subsidy.)

According to statistics compiled from candidate reports for the 1992 election, winners outspent losers in 87% of the legislative races. Candidates in 11 legislative districts (5% of 201 districts) ran without opposition in the 1992 general election.

Campaign expenditures in 1992 reported by candidates for state legislative offices were made from funding of $6,080,322 in contributions from individuals, political committees, and political funds (67%); $2,603,210 from public subsidy (29%); and $440,932 in contributions from political parties (4%)

Total campaign expenditures of $3,807,806 in 1992 reported by 161 Senate candidates represent a 16% decrease in campaign spending when compared with total expenditures of $4,035,822 for 1990. In 1992, Senate candidates spent $23,648 on the average, compared with $25,871 in 1990. The highest amount expended by a Senate candidate in 1992 was $50,587, compared with $172,512 in 1990. The Senate candidates received total contributions of $3,146,908 from individuals, political committees and funds, and political parties, including $1,416,717 from 3,381 contributions in amounts of more than $100 (45% of contributions received). No candidates in Senate districts ran without opposition in the 1992 general election.

In 1992, 296 House candidates reported total campaign expenditures of $3,780,740 a 7% increase in campaign spending when compared with total expenditures of $3,510,661 in 1990 and a 6% increase compared with total spending of $3,546,267 in 1988. In 1992, House candidates spent $12,773 on the average, compared with $12,860 in 1990, and $12,103 in 1988. The highest amount expended by a House candidate in 1992 was $43,365, compared with $36,991 in 1990 and $42,106 in 1988. The House candidates received total contributions of $3,374,436 from individuals, political committees and funds, and political parties, including $1,448,835 from 4,125 contributions in amounts of more than $100 (43% of contributions received). Candidates in 11 House districts (8% of 134) ran without opposition in the 1992 general election.

The Board's summary for 1992 includes reports filed by principal campaign committees of 13 candidates for election to six district court seats and seven candidates for election to four superior court seats. Judicial candidates reported total campaign expenditures of $593,533 from contributions totaling $598,662.

1992 General Election - Political Committees and Political Funds

Reports filed by 353 political party committees and 435 political committees and political funds who contribute to state candidates disclosed receipt of contributions totalling $24,009,938 in 1992 from which they made total contributions of $4,280,547 to state candidates. Included in the $24,009,938: $1,975,328 contributed to Democratic-Farmer-Labor (DFL) committees which made $597,091 contributions to state candidates; $2,429,789 contributed to Independent-Republican (IR) committees which made $453,109 contributions to state candidates.

Special Elections

A special election for house district 44B was held on January 12, 1993. Three candidates spent a total of $55,269, from total resources of $70,286. Two candidates received a public subsidy totaling $15,166.

Other State Candidate Committees

The Board report notes that 284 committees of candidates for state office were registered with the Board during 1992 whose candidates did not file for office in 1992. The committees report making a total of $523,661 in campaign expenditures in 1992 from resources totaling $1,549,460. In 1994, the offices of Governor-Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, State Auditor, and State Representative will be elected.

The summary includes, for each candidate committee, political committee or political fund, total contributions received; total transfers to other candidates, committees or funds; total expenditures; beginning and ending cash balances; a listing of the names of individuals, committees, or funds contributing in aggregate during 1992 more than $100 to legislative or district court candidates (more than $200 to statewide candidates and to political committees and political funds); and total amount of public subsidy received (applies only to candidates who signed and timely filed a Public Subsidy Agreement and an Affidavit of Contributions and qualified). A committee or fund's outstanding loans payable, unpaid bills, or disbursements other than campaign expenditures or transfers to candidates may not be reflected in the totals reported in the summary.

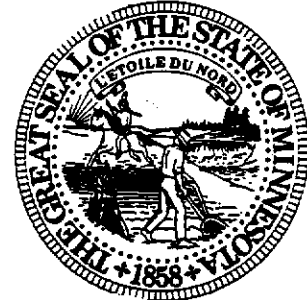

Campaign finance reports filed by candidate committees, political committees and funds, and summary publications are available for public inspection in the Board office, 658 Cedar Street, First Floor South, Centennial Building, St. Paul. Copies of state legislative candidate reports are available also in the county auditor's office in each county in the legislative district.

ABOUT CANDIDATE CAMPAIGN FINANCE DISCLOSURE

A candidate for state constitutional, legislative, or judicial office who accepts more than $100 from sources other than the candidate's own personal funds is required to register a principal campaign committee with the Ethical Practices Board. However, a candidate who does not designate and form a principal campaign committee and who spends more than $100 of the candidate's own money, not including filing fee, to influence that candidate's nomination or election is required to file a Report of Receipts and Expenditures with the Board.

ABOUT POLITICAL COMMITTEES AND POLITICAL FUNDS

Political Committee - Any political party; an association of two or more persons whose major purpose is to support or oppose the nomination or election of candidates for state constitutional, state legislative, elective judicial offices, or to promote or defeat a state ballot question.

Political Fund - Any accumulation of dues or voluntary contributions to an association other than a political committee which is collected or expended for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of candidates for state constitutional, state legislative, elective judicial offices, or to promote or defeat a state ballot question.
